BEAUTIFUL WEDDING OCCURED LAST NIGHT

Miss Ruth Fretwell Becomes the Bride of Clarence Ward Beaty.

Surrounded by nature's most lavish array of beauty and in a scene of rare loveliness, the wedding of Miss Ruth Fretwell and Mr. Clarence Ward Beaty was solemnized last night at "Sunset Forest," the beautiful summer home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fretwell, two miles west of town.

This lovely home, situated in a beautiful oak grove, is ideal in its appointments and furnishings, and is one of the handsomest in the State. The charming idea of a "rose wedding" was exquisitely carried out in the profusion of pink roses used everywhere.

The ceremony was performed on the broad piazza, with a background of vines interlaced with pink roses and studded with a row of electric lights. Tall stately palms and ferns made an effective setting for the lovely bridal party.

Before the ceremony several sweet selections by Mrs. Fred Maxwell and Mr. Sam Orr Tribble, accompanied by Mr. Webb von Hasseln on the piano, were given. Promptly at the appointed hour to the sweet strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. O. L. Martin, at the piano, Mr. Webb von Hasseln, on the violin, and Mr. Witt McCauley, on the cello, the bridal party came around the piazza from opposite sides, one by one, and took their stands in a semi-circle.

First came the four brothers of the bride, two from each side, Messrs. Raymond, Langdon, Joe and Sylvester Blackley; then the bridesmaids in the same fashion, Misses Zadie Fretwell, Miss Alberta Brock, Miss Bertha Cashin, Miss Lois Jackson, Miss Catherine Fretwell and Miss Vina Patrick. All wore dainty white net dresses over messaline, with green girdles and green slippers. They carried exquisite baskets of pink roses and wore white mullin picture hats.

From the front door came Master Sam Fretwell, in a pure white suit, catching the garlands of roses and making a pathway for the lovely bride, who was preceded by her two dames of honor, Mrs. Raymond Fretwell and Mrs. Joe Fretwell, and her maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Fretwell. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. J. J. Fretwell, and, meeting the groom with his best man, Mr. Walter Beaty, they took their place before Dr. E. M. Potat of Greenville, president of Furman University, who in a few impressive words performed the ceremony.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of duchess satin entrain, with a bertha of real lace, caught in place with pearls. Her long, graceful veil fell in misty folds to her train, enveloping in a soft halo of beauty. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses showered with lilies of the valley.

The two dames of honor wore lovely lace dresses over pink and carried pink roses. Miss Elizabeth Fretwell was beautiful in white net over green messaline.

Mr. and Mrs. Fretwell entertained the guests at a delightful reception immediately after the ceremony, and several hours were spent in a delightful social manner, all joining in extending the heartiest congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Beaty.

In the handsome new dining room, used the first time on this very happy occasion, pink roses were again predominant, while from the chandeliers to the table beneath fell long, graceful streamers of pink tulle. A large bride's cake was effectively arranged in the center, surrounded by pink roses. An elegant course supper was beautifully served. Mrs. Fretwell, in a handsome gown of lavender marquisette over satin, received her guests in her own inimitable and gracious manner and was assisted by Mrs. Carrie Patrick, Mrs. Carrie McCully, Mrs. Frederick B. Maxwell, Mrs. Wm. Laughlin and Mrs. P. K. McCully, Jr.

During the evening Mrs. Beaty changed her bridal robes for a handsome suit of dark blue with stylish hat to match, and slipped away with Beaty in an automobile for a two weeks' trip.

A great deal of interest has centered around this wedding, owing to the prominence of both families and the popularity of the young couple. About 300 guests were present.

Among the out of town guests here for the wedding were, Dr. and Mrs. Jesse Bell of Wallhalla, Mrs. Harrison Blackley of Atlanta, Mr. Willie Wilkes of Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. James McKelvey of McCormick, Mrs. Annie Beaty of McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Collier of Greenville, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Potat of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lee of Greenville and Mr. and Mrs. Crosby of Greenville.

Bully Balanced Fertilizers Mean Money Wasted.

March and April are months when commercial fertilizers are largely bought and used, and how to so balance these fertilizers that they may to the greatest good is a problem to which we should right now be giving the most careful study.

As an illustration of the misuse of fertilizers, the case of our good friend Uncle John is to the point. He was in to see us the other day and complained of the poor results he got last year from fertilizers used on some bottom land cotton. This land was in corn and peas the year before, and at planting time Uncle John used 200 pounds per acre of a 10-2-2 fertilizer and then in July applied 100 pounds of nitrate of soda per acre around the crop.

"Them cotton stalks looked like trees," affirmed Uncle John, "but darn my hide if I believe they'd average 10 bolls to the stalk. What's more, these wuz so late the frost got most o' them. What I want to know is, what wuz the matter?"

The matter was plainly an excess of nitrogen with the trouble aggravated by too late an application. There is hardly any doubt but that this particular field would have made a better crop with an application of acid phosphate alone, and at very materially less expense.—The Progressive Farmer.

"The Standard of Civilized Warfare."

(Greensboro News.) The Columbia State remarks that the Confederacy set the standard of civilized warfare, being moved to the observation by the fact that Northern critics of Germany always state that in comparison with the German campaign in Belgium Sherman in Georgia was gentle, and Sheridan in the valley of Virginia was humane. In other words, about the worst thing that people who don't like Germany can say is that her conduct has been worse than that of the armies of the United States in the South.

On the other hand, about the most complimentary thing that Germany's friends can say about her great field marshal is that Hindenburg is another Jackson. The South has reason for pride, indeed, in that her soldiers are the standard by which the most efficient of the armies in the great war is judged; but more reason for pride in the fact that Lee's march through Pennsylvania did not even give rise to a charge of atrocities, much less to their substantiation. In fact, the only piece of fiction that remains as a souvenir of that campaign is the tradition of the enemy that the commander himself promised death to any who should dare to lay hands on an old woman who was flaunting her flag in his face.

But when the South lost.
